2. Course Information

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The course is a general English course that will help our students use English efficiently in their social and academic life. The course aims to engage our students' interests and increase their motivation for learning by offering them stimulating topics with a syllabus that includes comprehensive work on grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation and the four skills of reading, listening, speaking and writing through a communicative language teaching and learning approach supported with blended learning tools.

This modular course covers L3 (Intermediate) CEFR Level.

COURSE PRE-REQUISITES: There are no official pre-requisites for this course.

Students who

- have internal motivation;
- effectively select and use learning strategies;
- have or develop learner autonomy;
- regularly attend classes;
- actively participate in whole-class, group work and pair work activities;
- make use of monolingual and bilingual dictionaries;
- extend their learning outside class by reading books, listening to music;
- are more likely to benefit from this course, whereas those who fail to do some or all of these would only improve their foreign language skills to the extent of the effort they make as the program is non-modular.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: After successful completion of this course, the students are expected to be able to

- follow and understand the content classes which are delivered in the medium of English
- understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, and etc.
- deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken
- produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest.
- describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons for opinions and plans

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Listening

The students can

- understand straightforward factual information about common every day or job-related topics, identifying both general messages and specific details, provided people articulate clearly in a generally familiar variety
- understand the main points made in clear standard language or a familiar variety on familiar matters regularly encountered at work, school, leisure, etc., including short narratives.

Speaking

Spoken Interaction

The students can

- deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken
- enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).

Spoken Production

The students can

- connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions
- briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
- narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe reactions.

Reading

The students can

- read straightforward factual texts on subjects related to their field of interest with a satisfactory level of comprehension
- understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.

Writing

The students can

- write simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest
- write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.

GENERAL LINGUISTIC RANGE:

- Has a sufficient range of language to describe unpredictable situations, explain the main points in an idea or problem with reasonable precision and express thoughts on abstract or cultural topics such as music and films.
- Has enough language to get by, with sufficient vocabulary to express him/herself with some hesitation and circumlocutions on topics such as family, hobbies and interests, work, travel, and current events, but lexical limitations cause repetition and even difficulty with formulation at times.

VOCABULARY RANGE

- Has a sufficient vocabulary to express him/herself with some circumlocutions on most topics pertinent to his/her everyday life such as family, hobbies and interests, work, travel, and current events

VOCABULARY: taught and learned through systematic expansion of topic based lexical areas;

Family, food, the weather and seasons, personality, health, work, sport, transport, travel, education, business, cinema & films, music, culture, daily routine, months, the house, food containers, city holidays, phones and the internet

VOCABULARY CONTROL

- Shows good control of elementary vocabulary but major errors still occur when expressing more complex thoughts or handling unfamiliar topics and situations

GRAMMATICAL ACCURACY

- Communicates with reasonable accuracy in familiar contexts; generally good control though with noticeable mother tongue influence. Errors occur, but it is clear what he/she is trying to express
- Uses reasonably accurately a repertoire of frequently used 'routines' and patterns associated with more predictable situations

GRAMMAR: taught and learned inductively in various contexts

PRESENT/PAST/FUTURE TIME and their simple, continuous & perfect aspects

VERBS; action & non-action verbs, gerunds, infinitives, verb patterns, prepositional verbs, phrasal verbs

NOUNS; singular, plural, count & non-count, simple & compound

PRONOUNS; subject, object, possessive, reflexive, reciprocal, indefinite
 ADJECTIVES; possessive, demonstrative, comparative & superlative, gradable & non-gradable
 ADVERBS; time, place, manner, frequency, modifying, sentential
 PREPOSITIONS; time, place, movement
 ARTICLES; definite & indefinite
 INTERROGATIVE FORMS; Yes/No & Wh- questions, with & without auxiliaries, direct & indirect, reported, tags
 MODALS; ability, possibility, permission, necessity, obligation, advice, deduction
 VOICE: Active & Passive
 ADJECTIVE CLAUSES: Defining, Non-Defining
 AUXILIARIES: negation, question, short answers
 SENTENCE TYPES: Affirmative, Negative, Interrogative
 CONDITIONALS: Real & Unreal conditional clauses
 QUANTIFIERS: Zero, Small, Big quantities
 MODIFIERS: quantity, degree

PHONOLOGICAL CONTROL

- Has pronunciation that is clearly intelligible even if a foreign accent is sometimes evident and occasional mispronunciations occur.

ORTHOGRAPHIC CONTROL

- produce continuous writing which is generally intelligible throughout. Spelling, punctuation and layout are accurate enough to be followed most of the time.

READING: taught and learned through engaging and stimulating texts of various authentic types exposing students to new vocabulary and consolidating grammar

The reading skills of skimming for main idea, scanning for specific details, making inferences, identifying references, and guessing meaning from context are aimed to be improved through a variety of activity types.

SPEAKING: communicative tasks are done about topics that will motivate students to speak providing them with key words and phrases necessary to discuss the topic and time to organize their thoughts before speaking. Through such speaking activities as pair, group and class discussions, debates, individual and group presentations, it is aimed to make students feel a sense of progress and see that the number of situations in which they can communicate effectively is growing by engaging them to do communicative tasks where they can use their knowledge of language to express their personal ideas, opinions and experiences.

LISTENING: confidence-building, achievable tasks are done using interesting, reading- and speaking-integrated listening material providing students with authentic spoken language such as monologues, dialogues in the form of interviews and conversations

The skills of listening for gist, listening for specific details, making inferences, identifying tone, style, and register, and guessing meaning from context are aimed to be improved through a variety of activity types.

WRITING: writing tasks are done using clear models to raise awareness of register, structure, and fixed phrases with a focus on 'micro' writing skills.

Through writing tasks, it is aimed to equip students with skills to be able to communicate in writing for personal and academic purposes (informal pieces of writing & formal pieces of writing such as narrative, process, definition, cause-effect, comparison-contrast and opinion, cause-effect, argumentative paragraphs)

FUNCTIONAL ENGLISH: mainly audio-video activities are done to expose students to authentic speech that could be encountered in a variety of everyday situations such as checking in at a hotel/the airport and buying clothes / food & drink.

Through activities focusing on various functions such as asking for/giving personal information, agreeing & disagreeing, asking for /giving opinions, making suggestions, it is aimed to equip students with what to say in typical social / real life situations and help them get used to listening to natural language.
